

WAFCS Student Unit Newsletter

September 2012

Meet your 2012 Officers!

Chair- Jessica Monfils

Jessica Monfils is currently in her senior year at the University of Wisconsin-Stout where she is studying Family and Consumer Science Education with a Health Education Minor. She is from Door County, WI and is the youngest of five children. Jessica is an active member in WAFCS and currently serves as Student Unit Chair. She is also active in her school FCS association and serves as the Vice president. In her free time Jessica likes to sew, scrapbook, snowboard, travel, fish and relax with family and friends at our log cabin.

Annika Olson is in her last year at the University Wisconsin- Stevens Point. She is studying Family Consumer Sciences and has a minor in Health Education. One day Annika hopes to work with middle school age students. While in school she has been a member of her local FCS student chapter as well as serving as treasure and president. In her spare time she enjoys playing rugby, knitting, spinning, sewing, teaching swimming lessons and spending time with friends and family.

Secretary- Rebekah Catalano

Rebekah Catalano was born and raised in Green Bay, Wisconsin. She is currently a senior at University of Wisconsin Stevens Point and is anticipating graduating in May 2013 with her bachelor's degree in Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Rebekah is the treasurer of UWSP student chapter and the secretary of the WAFCS student unit.

Amanda Montague is a forthcoming junior at the University of Wisconsin - Stout. She is originally from Forest Lake, Minnesota. Honors Amanda has received are as followed: secretary for the Family and Consumer Science organization at Stout, inter-campus relations officer for WAFCS, and a member of AAFCs. Also, another great accomplishment was to take part in the academic honor society organization at Stout. Amanda spends her spare time enjoying her hobbies: hunting, fishing, camping, crocheting, baking, and spending time with friends and family.
